

Milinda meets Doval

Sri Lankan High Commissioner to India Milinda Moragoda met the National Security Advisor of India Shri Ajit Kumar Doval, at the latter's office, in New Delhi, to review the status of the bilateral relationship and to discuss priority areas for future cooperation. The National Security Advisor of India and the High Commissioner of Sri Lanka discussed a range of issues pertaining to the mutual strategic interests of the two countries. The High Commissioner thanked the National Security Advisor for the support extended by India to Sri Lanka in many spheres. Shri Ajit Kumar Doval is the fifth National Security Advisor of India. He holds the rank of a Cabinet Minister.