

High Commissioners' Gallery opened in New Delhi

The Participants including High Commissioner of Sri Lanka to India Milinda Moragoda, (Centre) in the opening ceremony.

The High Commission of Sri Lanka in New Delhi opened a 'High Commissioners' Gallery' dedicated to all the High Commissioners of Sri Lanka to India in its chancery building yesterday (15).

The High Commissioners' Gallery features photographs of all the Representatives and High Commissioners of Sri Lanka to India who have served since 1942 commencing from Sir. D.B. Jayatilaka. A corridor in the chancery building, which has hitherto been underutilised has been converted in to the Gallery.

The Gallery was declared open at a simple ceremony by three of the longest serving members of the local staff of the High Commission: Deepak Nathani, Renu Sharma and Pradeep Das, in the presence of the High Commissioner of Sri Lanka to India Milinda Moragoda.

It will also be used as a reception area and a meeting room.