

The Prisoners' Welfare Association in collaboration with the private-sector is spearheading a programme to develop infrastructure to meet the basic needs of prisoners. Chairman of the Prisoners' Welfare Association of Sri Lanka Milinda Moragoda visited the Welikada Prison recently accompanied by R.A.D. Sirisena, Co-ordinator Projects of the Association; E.R. Lamahewa, Prisons Commissioner in charge of Rehabilitation; and Chandana Ekanayake, Head of the Welikada Prison and assessed the gaps in the infrastructure and facilities available to the prisoners.